

Report on Debate Competition

Department of Economics

To develop the logical argumentative skill of the students, the department of economics has organized a debate competition for the 5th sem students on 23rd January 2021. The topic of the debate was “Population Growth is the main cause of Unemployment in India”. A total of 34 student participants and all the faculty members of department of economics have attended the debate. Some students spoke for the motion and some against the motion.

The winners of the debate competition are

1st Miss Supria Karmamakar

2nd Sri Dhriti Kumar Bepari

3rd Sri Prosenjit Ghosh

