

Report on Debate Competition

Topic: Electoral Participation should be made mandatory to make Democracy a successful in real sense

Organizer: B.N. College, Dhubri

Venue: Digital Class Room

Date: 25/01/2019

Time: 11 AM

A debate competition was organized on a topic Electoral Participation should be made mandatory to make Democracy a successful in real sense under the theme of No Voter should be Left Behind on 25/01/2019 at B.N. College, Dhubri. The competition was a part of the National Voters' Day Celebration 2019 of the government of Assam. The programme started with an inaugural speech from Dr. Dhruva Chakraborty, Principal, B. N. College, Dhubri. A three member jury was constituted with Prof. Nagendra Nath Roy, Member, Governing Body and former Head, Department of Political Science; Prof. A.M.M. Mustafizur Rahman, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Economics and Prof. Rita Borah, Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy of the college to judge the competition. Apart from that, Ms. Sanjita Sultana, Sr. Inspector, DRCS, Dhubri; Mr. Ashraful Hussain, ST, Agomani HS School; and Mr. Parthib Barman, BLO, Dhubri were present as the representative of the government of Assam.

Fifteen students took part in the competition along with a sizeable number of audience consisted of the faculty members and students of the college. Mr., Sibesh Saha, B.Com. 4th Sem. Roll No. 2340 won the 1st position followed by Mr. Nishant Kashyap, B.Sc. 6th Sem. Roll No. 1280 and Mr. Joynal Sheikh, B.Com. 4th Sem. Roll No. 2351 adjusted with 2nd and 3rd position respectively. Prof. Nagendra Nath Roy delivered a speech on the importance of such kind of programme to aware the student community. Mr. Parthib Barman shared his views about the competition. Prof. A.M. M. Mustafizur Rahman also gave his remarks and declared the results. The competition ended with prize distribution and vote of thanks.

