Objectives:

All the teachers are subject to the guidelines provided in the Assam Government Service Rules (DHE) and the UGC for college teachers. As per UGC guidelines whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself / herself in accordance with the ideals of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his precepts and practice. The national ideals of education must be his / her ideals. A teacher, entrusted with social responsibility should be the embodiment of the basic ethical values like care, trust, integrity, respect etc.

Being the employees of the Government of Assam, all the support staff of this College should also follow the code of conduct stipulated by the State Government.

Code of ethics is to provide guidance and set common ethical standards to promote consistency in behaviour across all levels of employment. A code governs the actions and working relationships of top management with employees and in dealings with other stakeholders.

Keeping this in mind, the IQAC of B. N. College organised an Online Interaction Programme on ‘Code of Ethics & Conduct’ for non-teaching support staff.

Topic discussed:

During these 2 hours session, honourable Principal, B N College, Dhubri mentioned the need of code of conduct and ethics in a higher education institutions. He discussed various issues related to Code of Conduct and Ethics, like, Professional values, Professional development and practices, Professional integrity, Professional collaboration for faculty members and Professional conduct, Workplace conduct, Professional relationship for non-teaching support staff.

Expected Outcome:

- Better personified staff would evolve.
- Better office decorum would be initiated.
- Healthy relationship among staff with other stakeholders can be envisaged.
