6. A Brief Write up of the Programme:

On 24/05/2021, Monday, an online workshop was organised under the banner of B.N.College Drama Club which dealt with the delivery of dialogues in conjunction to the mobile theatres of Assam. The workshop started with a 1 minute silent prayer for all the good souls who unfortunately succumbed to the second wave of Covid19. The students from Higher Secondary were mentored by the other senior members of the Club in order to excel in the same. Apart from the TIC Dr. Alaka Sarma moderating and managing the session, joyous students including Pinha Khan, Pushpa Mahato and Rakhi Talukdar kept the session continuing. During the programme, students from higher secondary, including Anamika Das, Sajid Ahmed Rishika Paul Choudhury, Aastha Bhardwaj enacted and delivered dialogues from the famous Assamese play, "Kushal Konwar" and made the environment cheerful and positive. The programme came to an end with Pinha Khan delivering the vote of thanks and all the members clapping and cheering for all the frontliners who have dedicated their life to fight this pandemic.
