A brief write up on the programme: A Reading Session under the title of 'Express Yourself' was jointly organized by Creative Writing Club in Collaboration with Department of English, BN College on 15th February 2021. A total of 12 participants took part in the said programme and around 50 students were present. There were also a number of faculties from various departments present during the reading session. There were many promising young authors who read out their write-ups.. Many were poems in English, Assamese and Hindi. However there were also other non-fiction prose dealing with varied issues. Altogether it was a wonderful session with an exchange of insight for everyone present.
