About Dhubri

Dhubri district—the Gateway of western Assam, is a land of various racial groups which mingled together and formed a unique cultural heritage. Dhubri town is 290 km from the state capital Dispur, Guwahati. The district headquarter is located at Dhubri town, which was also the headquarter of erstwhile Goalpara district established in 1876 during the British regime. Dhubri town is famous for its Netai—Dhubuni Ghat, Sikh Temple, Panchpeer Dargah, Baptist Church and Jain Temple.

B. N. College, Dhubri At a Glance

B. N. College being the premier seat of learning in the Western part of Assam, had so far earned many a laurels for the state. At a meeting held on 26th August, 1944 in Dhubri Govt. High School premises that was presented by Late (Mr) Zahirul Huq Esqr, the then Deputy Commissioner of erstwhile Goalpara district, the feasibility of a college in both Arts and Science stream at Dhubri was discussed. A resolution was taken in the meeting to establish 'Dhubri College' which was attended by Rai Bahadur B. M. Dutta, Rai Bahadur A. U. Ghosh, Khan Bahadur Abdul Mozi Ziaos Shames, Mr. R. K. Bose, Zahaduddin Ahmed, Mucunda Narayan Barua, Mr. S. K. Bose and many others. The college was later in 1946 named as 'Bhola Nath College' after the name of Bhola Nath Choudhuri, father of Mr. Jyotsna Nath Choudhuri, Zamindar of Mechpara.

About the Seminar

From the very beginning of human civilization, philosophy has been playing a pivotal role to interpret human life, its values, meaning and destiny. Philosophy acts as the guiding force to establish the co relation between values and life. The role of traditional concept of values, in the context of modernization has also remained as an important topic of discussion till today.

The present age is the age of disbelief. Tradition and authority have lost their hold on the human mind. Gradually, religion too is dissolving and losing its grip.

The present seminar is expected to fulfill the following objectives:

- To create ethical awareness among the masses
- To explore the practical aspects of various theoretical concepts of ethics
- To revive the degrading moral values of the society
- To create awareness about the duties and responsibilities of individual
